County Teachers Attend Seminar at St. Anthony's

Two hundred and three teachers from grades 1 to 9 in the County of Parkland and St. Anthony's School registered for the Teacher's Institute held at St. Anthony's last Friday. Several guests from the Yellowhead School Division were present as observers as well as board representatives from the school units participating.

Despite the cold day, the seminar was very successful in providing teachers with an insight to improved teaching methods and the opportunity to up-date. The institute also offered the opportunity to share ideas with other teachers and university personnel engaged in research.

Mr. M. Holman, Superintendent of Schools for Parkland County, gave the welcoming address, at the gathering sponsored jointly by the Drayton Valley Separate School Board, Parkland Local A.T.A. and Parkland County.

Guest speakers included five from the University of Alberta, three from the Edmonton Public School Board, one from the Regional Recreation Board, and several talented people from the area.

DELEGATES ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

Several delegates were present for the regular meeting of Town Council on Thursday, November 26th, introducing discussion on a number of varied matters.

Mr. Len Hogarth, representing West Park Developments Ltd., was present to ask about zoning to R1B classification of optioned property south of the mobile home subdivision developed by the firm.

The matter had been referred to the Development Board which had recommended refusal of the request on the grounds that additional lots in the "B" classification are not required at the present time.

Council agreed with the Board's recommendation and refused the request.

Corporal Brian Thorstad, N.C.O. in charge of the R.C.M.P. Town Detail, was present to discuss the Snowmobile Bylaw. Corporal Thorstad was particularly concerned with the absence of an age limit clause.

Council was in agreement with the need for an age limit and the suggestion made that 14 years should be the minimum.

Several other aspects of the bylaw were discussed with Corporal Thorstad and the matter eventually left in abeyance until after a meeting of the Snowmobile Club this week which Corporal Thorstad planned to attend along with members of the town's

District Man Killed in Road Accident Monday

A head-on collision on the Lodgepole-Drayton Valley road Monday morning took the life of Ambrose Freeman (Johnny) Plewis, 70, of Rocky Rapids.

The accident occured 14½ miles southwest of Drayton Valley at approximately 10:00 a.m. Road conditions at the time of the accident were poor due to blowing snow.

Plewis was the driver of the south-bound vehicle which collided with the north-bound 3-ton gravel truck driven by William Tuttle of Evansburg.

Mrs. Eldora Plewis, wife of the deceased was injured in the accident and taken to the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton.

Tuttle received minor lacerations.

Mr. Plewis is survived by three sons; one daughter; three stepsons; three stepdaughters; five sisters; three brothers; and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in the Evansburg Hall at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 5.

The Drayton Valley Ski Hill will open on Saturday, December 5th with free skiing for the weekend.

Improvements to the hill this year include a third tow and a large increase in the length of the slope.

Lessons are available at the hill.

Rock Hounds Plan Meeting

A number of Drayton Valley residents interested in the rock hobby held a preliminary meeting last week and indications are that an attempt will be made to form a local rock hound club.

Quite a few people in the town and area have expressed interest -- beginners and those who are already active in the hobby -- it is planned to call an organization meeting soon after Christmas. Watch for an announcement of a meeting date in The Western Review.

Car Thefts Prompt Warning

Three car thefts in Drayton Valley during the past five days has prompted a warning from the R.C.M.P. to motorists to keep car doors locked.

During cold weather many motorists leave the motor running and the R.C.M.P. suggest locking doors when leaving the vehicle this way. It could save considerable inconvenience and the possibility of damage to the automobile.

snowmobile committee.

It is expected that changes in the bylaw will be made in co-operation with the R.C.M.P. at the next meeting of Council.

Mr. Alfred Lepp and Mr. Ken Wardlow, representing the town band, approached council with a request for financial assistance for the group which is struggling to become established.

It was pointed out that during the operation of a previous band $200. was made available yearly to assist in the purchase of instruments.

The meeting learned that a bank account of about $150. was still in existence in the name of the town band and this was turned over to the executive of the new group.

Council was sympathetic to the request and also authorized the sum of $200. to help get the group established.

Mrs. W. Hammerlindl, representing the Women's Institute, attended the meeting and advised that the W.I. had rejected Council's offer of use of the E.M.O. room and washrooms in the basement of the Town Hall for rest room purposes.

Mrs. Hammerlindl pointed out that the request for rest room facilities is of more than two years standing and that council failed to act positively on the request.

She noted "that money is always available for recreation purposes" and asked that the rest room request be treated in the same manner.

Councillor Claude Albert volunteered to act as a committee of one in investigating the matter and will table a report at the December 10th meeting.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

The matter of radio transmission antennas in residential areas was discussed as a result of complaints about T.V. reception.

Council seemed generally agreed that the towers are an integral part of oilfield operation which is the economic backbone of the community and should not be interferred with if they meet required standards.

The matter of T.V. reception, it was felt, should be directed by those affected to the Department of Transport which has the facilities to determine the sources of interference and have them corrected.

Council authorized continuance of negotiations with the owner of land on 50th street (Mac Kenzie property) which would be developed for residential purposes if obtained by the town.

x x x

Town engineer Bill Tuttle outlined plans for renovations to the town office to provide badly needed extra space. Preliminary changes to make the space usable without major renovations could be completed for about $300.00, Mr. Tuttle felt.

Council authorized proceeding with the preliminary renovation.

Councillor W.R. Mayhew was appointed as the town's representative to the Edmonton Area Industrial Development Association to attend meetings at his discretion.

Council set a Business License fee of $13.33 for Russell Simpson's skate sharpening shop for the balance of 1970.

Mrs. Patrick's comments on world conditions and what the great powers can do to better conditions in developing countries led to a lively question and answer period. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Greenwood spent last weekend at Red Earth. They enjoyed the trip very much as they had not seen that part of the country before.

The district was sorry to hear of Mrs. Young Sr. accident. She was taken to Edmonton with a broken hip and other injuries. The family has been in to see her several times.

We see Mr. Bill Barabash is back home again after spending some time in the States.

Mrs. Kurt Fausak spent several days visiting in Edmonton.

The Gay Gatherers held a very successful dinner at the hall on Sunday. A large crowd attended the buffet meal and also enjoyed a visit with their neighbors while they were eating. The proceeds from this event went toward the Christmas Party. The club wishes to thank all those who attended both from the community and town. That morning in time for the dinner, Mr. Fred Fausak and Mr. George Young installed a furnace in the hall and seeing it was a cold day it certainly was appreciated. Our thanks go to the Mitchells of Evansburg who donated the furnace to the mens community club.

Congratulations to Rosanna Whitz and Andy Kremeniuk on their recent engagement. An engagement party was held for them at the Udchitz home on Saturday night.

WEEKLY NEWS DIGEST

To Investigate Arctic Fire

OTTAWA -- A formal investigation will be started immediately into all of the facts concerning the blow-out and fire of the Panarctic King Christian D-18 exploratory well, Indian Affairs and Northern Development Minister Jean Chretien announced last week.

The King Christian well is rated as one of the largest gas discoveries in Canada, but it blew wild on October 25th when drilling reached a depth of 2,010 feet and is presently burning out of control. King Christian Island is about 150 miles Northeast of the Drake Point gas discovery well on Melville Island of Panarctic Oils Ltd, a consortium of the federal government, and 19 mining and oil companies and their affiliates. Efforts now are under way to bring the fire under control.

Panty Hose Stands Up

TORONTO -- Maybe panty hose don't always stand up to the roughest wear, comments Style, Canada's women's wear newspaper, but they do come in handy sometimes in a pinch. An enterprising nurse, after witnessing a car accident in which a youngster was badly hurt, applied her panty hose as a tourniquet successfully until an ambulance arrived. Another panty hose came through in an emergency when a carload of tourists was stranded after their fan belt broke. One of the women in the group used hers as a substitute fan belt which worked well enough to get them to the nearest garage six miles away.

Regional Library Vote

LEDUC -- Leduc county school committee will vote at their December meeting on the question of joining a regional library system which would service all school and public libraries in the county.

The co-operative system is organized under provincial legislation and financed by a $1 per capita grant from each participating county which is matched by a 75 cent provincial grant.

An initial $1 per capita grant is made by the province.

If school committee members vote in favor of the regional plan, they will join the Yellowhead Regional Library according to a news story in the Leduc Representative last week.

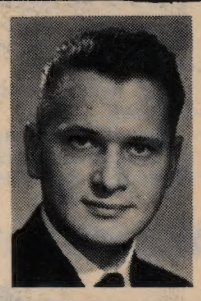
Report From Parliament Hill



By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

For most of the past three weeks the only matter before Parliament has been the legislation designed to replace the provisions of the War Measures Act with more appropriate law.

Much of the debate has been repetitious and seemingly unending. Because of this those of us who were attending the NATO Assembly meetings at The Hague and Brussels, fortunately did not miss much in the way of legislative business.

Many matters of concern to the NATO countries were considered at the Assembly, including many of particular interest to Canada, such as the threat of pollution in Arctic regions. The one area outside the military field which aroused the most interest was the matter of world trade.

Two major events have brought about some very marked changes in the world trade situation in the last decade or two--the incredible emergence of Japan as a major trader and the successful creation of the European Economic Community, or Common Market.

The Common Market was created about twelve years ago comprising six states, West Germany, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. All are also members of NATO. Basically the Common Market provides for a removal of all barriers to trade among the nations which are members and for a common tarriff on all goods entering the Common Market area. In effect, the member countries act as though they were one when it comes to internal and external trade. The success of the Common Market and Japan, in developing their trade, has been achieved to a great extent by the protection which has been offered to producers within the countries involved. This has naturally had an adverse effect on those states which had up to this point been major producers of goods and materials. Canada has for example been affected insofar as agricultural trade with the Common Market countries is concerned. The country most affected, however, is the United States.

Moves are now being made in the United States which if completed could result in a more protectionest position being assumed by the Americans. Many persons there are of the belief that severe restrictions on the importation of certain items are necessary to preserve segments of American industry.

Canadians, particularly those in Western Canada, believe that free trade in the world is the surest way to proper economic development. The reductions of tariffs which were effected by the Kennedy Round agreements were welcomed in Canada.

With the prevailing uncertainties in the world trade attitudes, Canada must reassess her position. If large trading countries or areas such as the United States, the Common Market and Japan, take more protectionest attitudes, Canada, which does not have the population to generate a sufficient internal trade, could not take a similar position. It is clear that we must look for ways of aligning ourselves with other states for the purpose of trade. Unless we are able to do so our economic position could be seriously threatened in the event that the major traders do not curtail the move to greater protectionism.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor
The Western Review

Dear Sir:

The latter part of the local hockey game last evening sounded every bit as good as the first but to see what was going on is quite another matter.

The generally considerate people of Drayton Valley fall flat on their faces when it comes to obeying the nice big red and white signs at either end of the arena. The pull of the weed must be pretty strong to risk the embarrassment of being asked to leave for the lobby and the ash trays.

All that attend must realize the fire hazard that this habit presents, not to mention mild burns from flying ashes of enthusiastic smoking fans. We have attended games in other places and not had the displeasure of trying to breathe and see through all that smoke.

Surely these individuals might practice a bit of self control for their own benefit and the comfort of everyone that happens to sit near them.

One of the others.

Dear Sir:

I would like to direct my letter to all citizens in the Drayton Valley area, who would like to help in putting the senior citizens home fund over the top.

I suggest that instead of sending local Christmas cards everyone donate the money that they would normally spend for this purpose to the Purple Pansy Senior Citizen Home Fund. We could be doing a lot more for our money, than buying cards that will soon find their way to the garbage tin after the holiday season is over.

Then wouldn't it be helping put some of the real true spirit back in Christmas to meet your friends and wish them a Merry Christmas and take time to run next door to your neighbors to do the same, but if they live a couple blocks away and one can't get to see everyone, there is always the phone. Next year we could use this fund to help the Maclures or some other worthwhile project.

This idea came from reading the "Commendable Project" from Tomahawk.

Yours truly,
An Interested Citizen

The Western Review

Dear Sir:

As a member of the Canadian Association for Humane Trapping, I am appealing to the citizens of Alberta to write to their M.L.A.'s in Edmonton urging that legislation be enacted banning the cruel leg-hold animal trap. An alternative trap is the Conibear which is more humane and better economically. The engineering department of McMaster University is engaged in a research program to develop other types of humane instead of killing traps for fur bearing animals. For more information about C.A.H.T. and its aims please write to Box 9, Site 13, R.R. 2, Calgary 2, Alberta.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
J. MacBean

Snowmobile Legislation

Snowmobiles are becoming a matter of concern to both safety groups and municipal bodies as evidenced by news stories and notices in this week's issue of The Western Review and the local bylaw printed last week.

Deaths and accidents are on the increase with the growing number of snow vehicles in use and there is real cause for concern and legislation to ensure proper handling before an accident snuffs out a life in our community.

Minimum age for drivers was overlooked in the bylaw but is under review and we can expect a change in this regard.

The vehicles are not permitted on streets and alleys of the town except to follow the shortest route out of town at minimum speed. However, in getting the vehicle out of town, it is obviously important that the driver be of sufficient age to handle it capably. How parents use the machines out of town, is their decision, but it appears that many of the youngsters operating them are not old enough or strong enough to be in complete control.

There are many people, among them T.V. viewers who are sick of watching white lines bobbing through the picture with each passing snowmobile, who would like to see the machines banned completely in town. It would certainly solve the enforcement problem but in fairness to all, the machines should be allowed some way out of town under their own power.

Many of the family machines are used after school by children and they should not be denied the opportunity of getting the machine to a usable area.

Public Urged to Support Safe Driving Week

The Canada Safety Council asks all Canadians concerned about safety to support its major traffic safety campaign, Safe Driving Week being held from December 1st to 7th.

The campaign aims at reaching every one of Canada's some 9,000,000 drivers with positive advice on how to prevent accidents during Safe Driving Week and every week.

Drivers supporting the campaign can show their interest by driving with lights on during the daytime while travelling on undivided highways, a practice greatly improving the visibility of their vehicles.

The campaign works because traffic deaths have been down consistently during Safe Driving Week in comparison with other weeks at this time of year. Every Canadian driver is urged to do his or her part in making it a success again this year.

Winter Driving Care

The Alberta Motor Association has issued a warning to all motorists to readjust their driving and parking habits now that winter appears to have set in.

Concern was expressed about the annual loss of life from carbon monoxide poisoning due to faulty mufflers or parking in a garage, or other confined area with the motor running. Another danger area is running the engine of a vehicle to keep warm when stuck in a snow bank or similar situation.

The Alberta Motor Association recommends that all drivers carry survival equipment when travelling outside towns and cities during the winter months. This should include a shovel, bag of sand, tow rope or chain, a good sleeping bag, flashlight, and some type of heater if possible. If using a heater inside a vehicle when stranded make sure to provide good ventilation, otherwise the heater will use up the oxygen in the enclosed car with fatal results.

Shop early for Christmas and enjoy the best selection.

Airport Forum

In Favor of The Airport

By T. W. D. JOHNSON

1. The existing airport is privately owned. It has been inspected by Ministry of Transport personnel and is not licensable for public or commercial use, due to adjacent hazards such as power lines, oilfield industrial plants and installations.
2. Community leaders here have long complained of lack of capital investments by senior Governments in the town and district. Now that the Federal Government is prepared to invest money in airport construction, some want to kill the idea.
3. Re. Primary Industry: No one has suggested that the airport or the town would or could attract primary industry. Highly qualified personnel from the Industrial Development Branch of the Government of Alberta, and from the Ministry of Transport are convinced the proposed Industrial Airport will attract secondary industry. Such projects have been proven successful in the U.S.A. and elsewhere in Canada.
4. Experience with similar ventures at Ponoka and other towns in Alberta show that the airport will not add to the mill rate.
5. We now have a "one industry town". Our one industry is oil production -- a depleting resource industry. Projections are that local field allowables will be reduced by at least 1/3 during the next 10 years.

Other "one industry towns" such as Coal Branch communities of Robb and Mercoal, and oiltowns such as Turner Valley have died, due to lack of diversification. Our town will eventually die, if we do not diversify.

When a town dies, property values are extinguished. Personal investments in homes and businesses become valueless.

6. 80% to 90% of the capital cost of the proposed paving program for the town is charged as frontage against property owners. Only 10% to 20% of the cost is considered a liability against General Revenue of the Town. Therefore the proposed paving program will not interfere with an airport investment by the Town.
7. The major part of the Town's investment at the airport will be for the land -- a non-depreciating asset that will never lose its value.
8. The work on the airport project will not be done by the town public works department, so it will not further tax their abilities.
9. Many of those persons taking the lead in opposing the airport project have their business capital mainly invested in mobile equipment. If the town dies, they can readily move elsewhere. Therefore they have no interest in diversification of the economy.
10. Many of those opposing the project have refused to acquaint themselves with all the pertinent facts, and have refused or neglected to attend fact-finding meetings attended by professional personnel from the Ministry of Transport and others. At the meeting held at the Town Hall on November 25th, with County and Ministry of Transport personnel in attendance, the Mayor and Councillor Huber failed to attend. Those who have attended have generally become enthusiastic.
11. Those opposing the airport on grounds of economy should try to economize in other areas. For example, the town now subsidizes the Curling Club by waiving their taxes -- some $1300.00 per year. This facility is used by grown up people who should pay for their own fun and games.
12. Re. Snow Removal Costs: Those opposing the airport have made unfair comparisons with snow removal costs in the Town of Drayton Valley. For example, it was stated that the first heavy snowfall this year cost the town $1200.00 for removal. It was not stated that the Town has approximately 35 miles of streets and lanes. As the airport would have approximately 2½ to 3 miles of runway, taxiway and access road, the same money would remove snow at the airport 12 times. It is possible the County would attend to snow removal on a courtesy basis in any case.
13. Tax prospects for the airport are as follows: (a) the County will not tax the town for land or town owned improvements. (b) the municipal portion of taxes on privately owned improvements will probably be rebated to the town.
14. Vision is needed to build for the future. This project will give Drayton Valley a distinct advantage over other Alberta communities that are seeking industrial growth.

Keep Drayton Valley alive. Support your airport project.

CARING ABOUT PEOPLE

Basic health plan provided

Health protection without economic fear is the objective sought for all Albertans by the Alberta government through the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan and Alberta Hospitalization Benefits Plan. Standard ward hospital care is now provided in addition to basic health services. The only direct cost to the resident being the $5.00 fee required on admission to hospital. Assistance with the premiums payable to the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan is available to individuals or families whose taxable income is less than $1,000.

Basic health services provided under the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan include all medical services, special oral surgery, optometric examinations annually if required, and limited chiropractic, podiatric and osteopathic services. Payment of benefits under the plan is at the level of 100% of the medical professions' schedule of fees and has eliminated any need by the doctor to bill any difference between the payment schedules.

The Alberta Health Care Insurance Commission will purchase membership from Alberta Blue Cross at full non-group rates and offer it at reduced rates to residents, thus making other health services such as semi-private and private ward care, ambulance services, drugs, appliances, home nursing care, naturopathic services, clinical psychological services, and dental care needed because of accidental injury, available on a non-group basis to subscribers to the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan.

Built-in highway safety

To contribute to safety on our highways, directional sign standards in many locations on the province's highway system are designed to break away upon vehicle impact. This built-in safety feature permits the metal standards to shear off just above the ground level, when hit by a vehicle, knocking the sign into the air to fall behind the vehicle. The Alberta Department of Highways and Transport includes many more safety features in its highway construction. On freeway-expressway projects ditches are made sufficiently wide, with gentle side and back slopes and rounded contours, to permit a car to go off the highway and normally recover without rolling or colliding with back slope obstructions. Safety concrete curbing, designed to allow a vehicle to ride up a sloping shoulder and be deflected back to the travel lane is being used in lieu of guard-rails at various locations. High mast lighting at interchanges permits better illumination with fewer poles to become traffic hazards. Of course, the most extensive elimination of common traffic hazards is accomplished via the complete freeway system, the first stages of which Alberta drivers enjoy with the fully-divided highways such as those between Edmonton and north of Calgary or between Calgary and Banff Park gate.

Exclusively for the ladies

There are, in circulation in Alberta, an estimated 70,000 copies of a booklet called "Wills and Estates for Albertans". Originally printed to advise Alberta women on the problems and procedures of drawing up a will, the publication has attracted the attention of men's groups as well. It has also been reprinted by commercial organizations concerned with this aspect of legal preparedness. Presently, the book is being revised and updated by its publisher, the Alberta Women's Bureau. The Bureau acts as liaison between the provincial government and Alberta women, and specializes in the collection, compilation, and publication of information on matters of particular interest to women. It also conducts various workshops throughout the province. The Alberta Women's Bureau is the provincial government's response to the growing participation of women in business and community life and to their desire for accurate information on an ever-increasing variety of subjects.

Estate tax rebate

Last year, more than 500 estates received estate tax rebates totalling over $5 million. This estate tax rebate program is financed by the provincial share of federal estate tax which, under provincial statutes is returned to the estates of deceased persons who were bonafide residents of Alberta. The rebate program is designed to relieve the tax burden on estates within the province and to encourage investment in Alberta. The amount of rebate to eligible estates is 75 per cent of federal estate tax attributable to Alberta property.

Anyone planning a personal estate, or persons making applications for a rebate, can obtain advice from the Estate Tax Rebate Branch, which provides a brochure outlining eligibility, procedures, and requirements. During the present fiscal year, the branch estimates that it will return over $7 million to Alberta estates.

Financial aid for crime victims

Since October 1969, 22 victims of crimes of violence in Alberta have received over $50,000 in compensation for injuries received. Other applicants are presently being considered by the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board, established by the provincial government for this purpose. Any resident of the province who is injured as a direct result of a crime of violence or as a direct result of endeavoring to arrest someone, or preserving the peace or assisting a police officer in carrying out his duty, or the dependents of anyone killed in any of these circumstances, is eligible to file a claim for compensation.

The secretary of the Board, a qualified lawyer, acts as counsel for applicants who do not have legal representation and presents the case to the Board. Public hearings are held at regular intervals for presentation of claims. For complete information on the extent of compensation available and the procedures for making a claim, telephone the Crimes Compensation Board at 229-3087, Edmonton.

Special education services

The provincial government, through the Alberta Department of Education, provides a variety of services, facilities and financial assistance in the important field of special education. In 1970, for example, 2,904 students with such handicaps as subnormal mentality and defective hearing and eyesight enrolled. Blind children are maintained at the expense of the Department (tuition, travel and subsistence) at special schools outside the province. A library of textbooks in braille and tape form has allowed an increasing number of blind students to remain in the province.

The Department also provides grants towards operating and capital costs of schools for the retarded, both public and private. The Alberta School For The Deaf, operated by the Department, provided special educational services for about 135 ypungsters during the 1970-71 school year. In addition, the school is developing a special program and learning centre for the needs of children who are both emotionally disturbed and deaf. And, to improve communications, the Department offers a consultative and referral service to help the parents of handicapped children. Write to "Special Education", Department of Education, Room 608, Administration Building, Edmonton.

Fifty Percent Increase In Snowmoble Accidents

Snowmobile deaths soared by 50 per cent last winter. Predicted high sales of the motorized snow-vehicles make a further increase in casualties most likely this winter unless operators take more care.

In a national report prepared by the Canada Safety Council, public road collisions are singled out as by far the leading cause of snowmobile deaths.

Of the 93 snowmobile deaths last winter, 47 resulted from collisions with other motor vehicles. One of the victims was a nine-year-old boy whose snowmobile collided with a car on a main highway.

Driving snowmobiles at night proved to be the most hazardous practice of all. Of the fatalites, 28 took place at night.

Broken down by location, 22 of the total number of deaths took place on municipal roads, 21 on secondary roads and four on main highways.

While legislation varies widely from province to province, snowmobiles are generally allowed on roads except on main highways. Where snowmobiles are allowed on roads, registration is compulsory.

There are more than 350,000 registered snowmobiles in Canada, about half of the snowmobiles is use. The unregistered vehicles are supposed to be used only on private property.

Apart from traffic deaths, 21 snowmobilers drowned of whom 11 were operating their machines at night. Eight died in collisions on private property. Five died when their vehicles were struck by trains. Another five died in collisions with wire fences. Three died in accidents on trails or parks. One each was killed when hitting a tree and house steps. Another two died in accidents while repairing their machines.

Broken down by age categories, the 16 - 19 year olds suffered most fatalities. Twenty of the victims were in this bracket. Thirteen children under the age of 15 were killed, five of whom were drivers. One youngster was driving a snowmobile hit by a train.

Of the victims, only 17 were over the age of 44, a sharp decrease compared to the previous winter.

Seventy of the victims were drivers and 21 passengers. Seventy-eight were male and 15 female. (The apparent discrepancy in these figures is acccunted for by the two victims of accidents while repairing their machines).

The Canada Safety Council reiterates its warning that snowmobilers using their machines for pleasure stay off public roads. The manufacturers state that the machines are not designed for highway use. The mounting casualty figures emphasize the urgency of this warning.

A.A.R.N. Meeting

The next regular A.A.R.N. meeting will be held December 7, 1970 at Mrs. Dahl's house at 4864 - 54 Avenue. This is the Christmas Party so everyone is urged to attend.

MAGNOLIA NEWS

The Johnson brothers Larry and Ralph are busy again this winter playing hockey. This year they are playing on two teams in Drayton Valley. Larry plays with the Midgets and Ralph is with the Bantams.

Leroy, Marian and Misty Roth of Edmonton spent this past weekend with Al, Alma and family. Misty was two years old on November 11th.

Mr. Churchill who very recently had a large green house completed will be the envy of many local green thumbs. He tells me that he is going to grow both flowers and vegetables in his greenhouse. That's one way to out-wit the frost and winter.

Jack, Ruth and Lorna McDougall visited their relations here this weekend. It is reported that Ruth is feeling much better.

Don Rose is presently employed at Wolf Lake for a brief time. While Don is working Connie is staying with her folks.

We'd like to welcome Mr. L. McWillis back to the community for the winter. He is residing with Orris and Dorothy. Orris and Dorothy were accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Smith to visit the ladies father and other relations at Bonnyville, Heinsburg and Lindbergh. They left on Friday and returned on Monday November 23rd.

Do you remember reading about "Christopher", Orris and Dorothy's grandson, who weighed only one pound and fourteen ounces at birth November 19, 1969. I'm told that that little gentleman is now just over twenty pounds and is walking with the aid of the furniture. This certainly proves that good things come in small packages.

Mr. Arno Johnson who recently had to rest in hospital in Drayton Valley for a week is home and feeling some improved.

Wade Roth has returned after travelling in British Columbia for a week. While in B.C. he visited with his uncle Ralph Roth.

Harlem Aces to Play Game Here

The touring laughmakers, the Harlem Aces, are travelling again this season to entertain the fans with their skill in basketball.

The hilarious Aces are billed as the funniest basketball team in America. The Aces are a combine of Hoop Stars who tour the country making people laugh.

When some of the names of laughmakers are mentioned, hoop fans get ready for an evening of entertainment. The fans come out to see a fancy exhibition of razzle-dazzle, ball handling, intricate routines, both planned and impromptu comedy and all sorts of shenanigans.

The Aces are unique in the fact they never try to run up a huge score against opponents. It has been their policy to keep the games even,devoting much of the time to comedy stuff and ball handling routines. There are times naturally when the Aces have to extend, themselves. The home team is exceptionally strong or gets "Hot" the Aces have a ball game on their hands. Then you see some real action as well as comedy.

The Aces are a barnstorming outfit with a carload of tricks. A talent-plus comedy routine equivalent of the famed Harlem Globe Trotters. The Aces put a few fancy added wrinkles into ball play.

The Aces have defeated some of the greatest teams in basketball throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

They will be at the Frank Maddock High School at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, December 7th. Advance tickets are available at the school.

Small Audience Enjoys Band Concert

A collection of music ranging from the classical Nutcracker Suite by Tschaikowsky to Christmas music to the recent pop hit Windy, was highly enjoyed by a very small audience of 75 people last Friday.

The 50 piece All City High School Band from Edmonton, consisting of students from six different Separate High Schools, was conducted by Frank Dunnigan. The evening of this rare entertainment for Drayton Valley was sponsored by the Frank Maddock High School's Student's Union in cooperation with the Drayton Valley Community Band.

This was a very good example of what a young boy or girl can do with an instrument and the right guidance. It is not just anyone who can play a musical instrument but everyone. With this in mind and with a good deal of hard practising, Drayton Valley could have a community band perform as well as a town smaller than Drayton Valley in southern Alberta, that came out top in High School Band competitions in Alberta.

Band membership is steadily increasing but more are still needed. If you are interested, please give your support.

The band executive extends its thanks to the girls taking tickets at the door and to the women who helped serve drinks and sandwiches to the band members after the concert.

Last Rites for Frank Schroder At Evansburg

The funeral services for the late Frank R. E. Schroder took place November 11th at the Evansburg High School Auditorium with Reverand W. R. McQuaid officiating. Interment was in the Evansburg Cemetary.

Mr. Schroder passed away on Sunday, November 8th, aged 70 years. He is survived by his loving wife, Anne Louise, three sons and one daughter -- Charles E. of St. Albert; John H. of Slave Lake; Ronald W. of Hinton; Judith Anne of Evansburg; four brothers and one sister -- John of Edmonton; Henry of Evansburg; William of Hinton, Carl of Edmonton and Mrs. Erna Bruens of Edmonton; also five grandchildren.

Frank R.E. Schroder was born December 29th, 1899 in Hamburg, Germany. The Schroder family came to Canada in 1914 and homesteaded in the Fawcett district north of Edmonton. In 1924 they moved to Edmonton and in 1928 to the Gowanbrae District north of Evansburg.

He married Anne Louise Stephens on July 24, 1935. They farmed north of Evansburg until 1947 when the family moved to Evansburg. He worked in lumber mills and as a carpenter. He was active in the community as secretary and member of the Evansburg Volunteer Firemen, secretary of the Community League, Secretary of the Evansburg Credit Union and an active member of the Anglican Church.

LIBRARY NEWS

Several books of interest have been added to our collection this week. For the pre-teen and early teen group there is "Five Go To Billycock Hill" and "Five Get Into a Fix" by Enid Blyton. "Mystery of the Black Diamonds" and "The Mystery of the Gulls" by Phyllis Whitney. In the adult section "The French Lieutenant's Woman" by John Fowles is among the top ten on the best-seller list. John Fowles's writing style is rather unique and is not appreciated by some readers. One of our most frequent borrowers remarked of Fowles's book "The Magus", "That writer gives one the impression his mind is in a knot". Your library staff will be pleased to hear your comment on "The French Lieutenant's Woman".

"The Way of An Eagle" by Dan Potter is a story about youth as it is today. Buddy rides into a small mid-western town on a white motor cycle and events move along swiftly to a violent climax.

"I Heard the Owl Call My Name" by Margaret Craven is the book one remembers long after -- more impressive looking volumes are forgotten. A young minister is given three years to live and spends his time in a British Columbia Indian village. "Animal Farm" by George Orwell is a satire on dictatorships. The animals on a farm drive out their master and take over and administer the farm themselves. Leadership devolves upon the pigs. Unhappily their character is not equal to their intelligence. The last chapter brings in a dramatic change.

Piano Workshop Held at School

A piano teachers and students workshop was held in Drayton Valley in the Elementary School on Friday and Saturday, November 20th and 21st.

The workshop was conducted by Miss Anne Burrows who is well known in the field of music in Edmonton. She is a teacher, also a critic and has a column in the Journal and has, in the past, had programs on T.V. in connection with symphony concerts.

Miss Burrows has a very modernistic and controversial approach to the teaching of music and passed on to those present some valuable information. A number of students played for demonstration purposes and Miss Burrows comments and criticisms should prove very useful to everybody.

This was the first workshop of this kind in town and it is hoped that it will not be the last.

Our thanks to Mrs. Ruby Moltzan who made all the necessary arrangements -- this being no small task.

Teachers brought examples of their student's art work for a display at the Teachers Institute Friday. Admiring the display are Mr. D. Harrison Drayton Valley Junior High; Mrs. M. McDonald, Drayton Valley Elementary; Mr. R. Murray, Vice-principal Spruce Grove Upper Elementary and Junior High and Mr. D. Reid, Drayton Valley Junior High.

United Church Setting For Fall Ceremony

The Drayton Valley United Church was the scene of a beautiful fall wedding on Saturday September 26th uniting in marriage Irene youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emile Maillot of Blairmore, Alberta and Robert Bohning youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bohning of Alder Flats, Alberta. Rev. Oldering assisted by Father Lynch officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church organist played the wedding music.

The radiant bride given in marriage by her brother Hubert Maillot wore a floor length gown of imported lace over taffeta and net trimmed with pearls and sequins with scalloped neckline and lily point sleeves. Her tiered nylon chiffon veil was held in place by a pearl tiara head piece. The bride carried a lovely bouquet of red roses.

Attending the bride was Rosalie Cook who wore a long gown of salmon pink georgette chiffon over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white Shasta daisies and wore a tiara in her hair.

Attending the groom as best man was Joe Mills a friend of the groom. The ushers were nephews of the groom Edward Carbonneau and Gregory Bohning.

A reception for over one hundred guests was held in the Alder Flats Hall. Master of ceremonies was Arnold Olsen. Ernest Carbonneau brother-in-law of the groom gave the toast to the bride. Marilyn Carbonneau gave a toast to the master of ceremonies.

The head table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake decorated by Frances Nicolls, flanked with beautiful large bouquets of tame roses brought by the groom's sister, Marilyn Carbonneau from St. Helens, Oregon. Rev. Oldering said grace.

A dance followed with a large crowd attending and the Melody Ramblers supplied the music.

The bride changed to a lovely yellow chiffon dress with a dropped waistline, lace jacket and silver slippers.

After a short honeymoon the newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton, Alberta

Out of town guests were from St. Helens, Oregon, Blairmore, Hinton, Wainwright, Edmonton, Falun and Lacombe.

Parkland Notebook

The third meeting of the "Community Interaction Congress" was held in the County Committee Room on Thursday, November 5, 1970 with 12 people present, representing the Department of Agriculture, F.W.U.A., Department of Social Development, Treasury Branch, Agriculture Service Board, Provincial Government, Department of Youth and Parkland Regional Recreation Council.

— Mr. Syd Moore, Superintendent for the Parkland Regional Recreation Council, was chairman for the meeting and he answered further questions the group had in connection with the operation of the Parkland Regional Recreation Department. He recommended that each Government Department or Agency open a file for every other member of the C.I.C. and each member supply these files with information about their operation, giving such information as philosophy; Order in Council; what financial assistance their Department makes, if any; what policies they develop or work under; and be responsible for sending carbon copies to these files of day-to-day correspondence whenever they feel the information is pertinent. This way everyone would know the kinds of programs and services that are going on in certain communities at certain times, which would eliminate duplication and implement co-ordination of services.

The Department of Social Development was on the "Hot Seat" for this meeting and Mrs. Sharon Herron, the new Social Worker in the Stony Plain area, enlightened the group on her role in the community. Other Government Agencies expressed a desire to assist Mrs. Heron in developing joint programs in the area.

The Department of Agriculture will be on the "Hot Seat" at the next meeting of the C.I.C., which will be on Thursday, December 3, 1970, at 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the County Committee Room, with Mrs. Herron chairing the meeting. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Hormones Recommended For Fattening

A small investment in synthetic hormones for fattening cattle definitely pays dividends when the products are properly administered, advises P.J. Martin, animal nutritionist at the Alberta soils and feed testing laboratory.

Diethylstilbestrol, or DES, is the hormone most commonly used for steers. It is available as either an implant or in oral form via a 32 per cent protein supplement. Feed companies usually sell 32 per cent supplements with or without DES. According to Mr. Martin, implanting or providing DES in the feed are both inexpensive and equally effective ways of supplying this hormone. DES, he says, can be expected to increase feedlot grains by 10 to 30 per cent.

Melengestrol acretate, or MGA is a hormone fed to feedlot heifers to suppress estrus (heat) and to increase gains. A summary of university trials carried out across Canada shows that the daily gain of heifers receiving MGA increased by an average of 11 per cent, Mr. Martin says.

The above results can be expected providing the hormone is used strictly according to the manufacturer's directions. Maximum response, points out Mr. Martin, can be expected only from feedlot animals receiving high energy rations.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Kevin Peterson and Don Sellar (Of the Calgary Herald)

Sweeping changes in the organization of Alberta government departments under the new administration of Premier Harry Strom likely will be a featured attraction at the forthcoming Legislative session.

The 56-year-old Social Credit leader already has announced plans to create a new department, merge two others and juggle some of the services which are part of the government's $1.1 billion annual spending program.

The administrative changes are designed to provide a framework for the changes and innovations promised for the 1970's by a politician who hopes to extend the 35-year-old Socred mandate beyond the terms of William Aberhart and Ernest Manning.

The most innovative move unveiled by Mr. Strom during a series of policy statements this fall is his proposal for a new department of environmental improvement to co-ordinate and focus government anti-pollution and resource development policies.

Widespread public concern has made the environment a prime political debating issue both inside and outside the Legislature, and the Socred leader is determined to respond to demands for clean air and water.

Earlier this year, the government took steps to create a pollution "Ombudsman" by establishing the Environment Conservation Authority to conduct public hearings and investigations into pollution abuses and land use problems.

The ECA will be incorporated into the new department, which will gather under its wing a host of agencies and responsibilities currently spread among numerous departments.

Opposition Conservatives have centred much of their pollution criticism on the haphazard and confusing allocation of authority for protection of the environment and for development of resource regions such as the foothills.

The new department -- the first provincial portfolio in Canada to include both resource development and pollution control responsibilities -- will be handed the tough job of implementing the government's multiple-use policy for recreation land containing valuable natural resources

Health Minister J. D. Henderson, an outspoken petroleum engineer and MLA for Leduc, has been handed the delicate task of shaping the new department and selling its policies to Albertans.

Premier Strom has not designated Mr. Henderson as minister for the new department, although at a recent press conference in Calgary he described the health minister as a "logical choice" to preside over its affairs.

The Leduc MLA, who already has hurdled the touchy problem of implementing medicare in Alberta, also is at the heart of major changes which will spell an end to the autonomous existence of his health portfolio.

The health and social development departments are to be merged in the interest of administrative convenience to avoid costly duplication of services. Mr. Henderson has said his own department has "grown like topsy" in recent years. The two departments together spend 55 per cent of the Alberta budget.

Simultaneously, the government is planning to create a new hospital services commission as an aid to decentralization of hospital operations across the province. Local hospital boards are to get increased authority under the commission set-up.

Currently, Mr. Henderson spends up to 80 per cent of his work day on hospital matters which will be handed over to the commission, thus freeing a cabinet minister for long-range planning in the increasingly-expensive hospital field.

Opposition reaction to the juggling has been restrained, although Dr. Hugh Horner, Conservative House leader and MLA for Lac Ste. Anne, criticized the merging of the health and social development departments as a "Game of musical chairs."

The Tories have given tentative support to the hospital commission and the environmental improvement department, but obviously are waiting for the day when the government presents its plans in detailed legislative form.

Possibility Teen Centre Discussed

The C.W.L. met with members of the St. Anthony's Men's Club on Sunday, November 29th in the Cardium Room for a joint breakfast meeting. The C.W.L. asked for volunteers to work at the Christmas Bake Sale on December 11th. The phoning committee will be asked to phone all the ladies of the parish for a donation of baking.

It was decided to have the draw for the tickets in January.

The joint meeting was clarified by Mr. R. Woods, president of the Men's Club. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the possibility of pooling together our efforts to get to know our fellow parishioners better in the church as well as parish socials, also in working together on worthwhile projects. Everyone agreed to this and one of the suggestions was that we examine the possibility of organizing a teen centre in Drayton Valley, there was much discussion on the needs for such a place for our young people, but it was felt by the meeting that such an undertaking is beyond the scope of a single group, and was suggested to approach members of other church groups and service clubs to make this project a combined and truly communal effort.

Mrs. Eva Hennessy was asked to make the neccesary contacts with the different church groups.

MOON LAKE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Town were delegates at the Alberta Baseball Association meeting held in Red Deer on November 22nd, for the County of Parkland and presented an outline of a proposed Tom Thumb League, which was ventured into this past season with Tomahawk and Moon Lake teams. These are the first teams of its kind in Alberta. This is between the ages of five and eight years. This meeting proved successful to all concerned as many points of interest were discussed.

Get well wishes go to Frank Banks Jr. who is convalesing at home after undergoing surgery in the Drayton Valley Hospital.

The Moon Lake Baseball Club banquet was held on Sunday evening, November 29th, with many persons attending the supper. Among the honored guests present were Mr. Ron Hayter, president of the Baseball Association, his wife and family of Edmonton, Mr. Fred Skakum, president of the Alberta Umpires Association, Edmonton; Mrs. Lorie Robinson, Secretary Treasurer of the Umpires Association; her husband and family of Edmonton and Mr. Mike Gormley, Recreation Director, Drayton Valley. Each of these guests gave a very interesting speech to the club on baseball and the attitude towards baseball.

Films were shown to conclude the evening of baseball of the past seasons by Mrs. Blanche Jensen, Roy Catt and Earl Jensen.

It was very interesting for the Bantam age groups to see themselves on film playing when they were between the ages of five and seven years.

Bernie Town was the very capable master of ceremonies for the evening.

The club would like to thank the managers and coaches of the past season. Tom Thumb League Manager, Mrs. Violet Lang; coaches, Roy Catt and Oliveen Town; Little Canadian Manager, Blanche Cherrington (Spud); coach, Don Cherrington assisted by George Cherrington; Bantams manager, Oliveen Town, coaches Larry Carnegie and Bernie Town.

The girls team was managed by Chester Town and coached by Larry Carnegie.

The club would also like to thank the ladies of the community for the lovely supper they served.

A surprise baby shower was held for Mrs. Gwen Melnyk and baby Tania on Friday evening, November 22. Thirty one ladies turned out in the cold weather and Gwen says she received many lovely and useful gifts.

Several men from the district employed with Anchor Construction have left for Nippissi for a few weeks work before Christmas.

There will be a bingo here in the community hall on Thursday, December 3. Jackpot stands at $220.00.

PROTEIN GRADING

Farmers should not expect protein grading of wheat to suddenly open vast new markets, Commissioner H. D. Pound of the Canada Board of Grain Commissioners recently told Alberta Wheat Pool Delegates at their Annual Meeting in Calgary. However, said Mr. Pound, Canada will be able to offer uniform protein to customers, something which has not been possible under present regulations.

Baseball President Speaks at Moon Lake

Amateur baseball is enjoying a tremendous resurgence in Alberta.

Ron Hayter of Edmonton, president of the Alberta Baseball Association, made this statement at the annual minor baseball banquet at Moon Lake last Sunday.

He said the number of teams affiliated with the ABA in 1970 totalled 519, compared to only 184 in 1968.

"Amateur baseball is one of the best character-building sports there is today," he stated. "It teaches a youngster to think quickly, to make decisions, to be self-reliant."

Mr. Hayter stressed the need for adequate recreational facilities in a community.

"A society that would rear good children must provide facilities and conditions for their wholesome development," he said.

"To skimp on recreation is to skimp on the sound development of our children. If we want to make better men to make a better world, then we have to begin where men are made -- with the boy."

He lauded the community of Moon Lake for its energetic minor baseball program, and paid special tribute to Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Town. "There's no doubt about it -- this is a community that cares about its youth."

The ABA president said the "Tom Thumb" baseball program, originated in Moon Lake for youngsters between five and eight years old, was attracting considerable interest in other parts of the province.

Mr. Town was master of ceremonies at the banquet, which filled the hall to capacity. Following the dinner, movies were shown of the Moon Lake teams in action.

Other special guests at the affair were Laurie Robinson of Edmonton, one of the three women named to the ABA executive this year; Fred Skakum, president of the Alberta Baseball Umpires Association, and Mike Gormley, recreation director in Drayton Valley.

The Homemaker

Mrs. Georgianna McDavid

"To be or not to be, that is the question".

At first glance rather an odd opening for a "Homemaker" column.

A word of introduction, my name is Mrs. Georgianna McDavid and I'm the newly appointed District Home Economist. My rural area includes the County of Parkland and the area west to Jasper including Evansburg, Edson and Hinton.

You're probably wondering how an old Shakspearean phrase is relevant to you. For my service "to be" useful or "not to be" useful depends on my resources and your needs.

What are the services of a Home Economist? I hope the old cliche, Home Economics does not just imply that my services are only applicable to problems around the home. I have had training in areas such as nutrition, family economics, interior design and child psychology. My training also encompasses the daily problems of the homemaker: buying household equipment, fabric care, food buymanship, and budgeting. How can you get in touch with the Home Economist? You may write, phone or drop into the office in the Stony Plain County Building (777-2231). I will also be establishing an office day in Evansburg in the new year. In December, I will be going to Evansburg District Agriculture Office every Monday if you care to call there.

If you care to keep in touch through the news media, follow the Homemaker column which appears in the Stony Plain Reporter, The Drayton Valley Western Review and the local Edson paper. I will also be writing a newsletter, the D.H.E. News and Views every two months. If you would like to receive a free copy phone the office at 777-2231.

Another area of my work includes meetings, workshops, short courses and informal groups where we discuss any aspect of homemaking. Or my work can be individual assistance through home visits, office interviews, phone calls and correspondence.

I hope I have lit a spark of interest. Now let's hear from you if I can be of some assistance.

Tractor Club Plans Early Winter Events

The second meeting of the 16A 4-H Tractor Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bruner on November the 17th, at 7:30 p.m.

It was decided that two bake sales are to be held on December the 12th from 1:00 to 4:00. Possibly, one is to be in Evansburg in the Marshall Wells store and one in Wildwood at Bill's Buywell Store. A committee was elected to look after the posters and the setting up of the baked items. The committee is to meet after our next meeting.

Mr. Andrews, the 4-H Regional Specialist from Edmonton gave a talk on how to get started and also some pointers on tractor books.

The club decided to go along with the Lobstick 4-H Beef Club, the Pembina Field Crops Club, and the Entwistle 4-H Sewing Club for a Christmas Party. On behalf of the club Doug Van Koski and Allen Mazeppa are to go to the committee meeting on Sunday the 22nd at 8:30 p.m. at the Slemko residence.

Six new members were welcomed to the club. They are: Ricky Ostertag, Freddie Hutchinson, Duane and Darrel Van Ember, Jerry Treit, and Anthony Rosadiuk.

Next meeting is to be held on December 2nd at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Bruner volunteered to find a place for the meeting.

SUB-MITS

FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Last week's Institute for teachers was most beneficial. A newer approach to the teaching of Social Studies will prove useful to teachers of these subjects. With developments in the world proceeding as rapidly as they are, even new textbooks are soon out of date. More about Social Studies in a later issue.

Teachers of Reading were given ideas for challenging the better readers, and were also given a few more ways to help children who have reading problems.

A display of Art should bring forth new ideas in each classroom. Music and Physical Education were stressed as equally necessary to the curriculum. In the early grades, the development of rhythm is more important than note reading. Physical education teachers did some practical work in creative dance.

We ask the co-operation of the public during the time when buses are loading or unloading children. The buses have a schedule to meet and must be allowed the right-of-way in our school yard. Also children are careless, and may dash out in front of you. Icy streets may make it difficult to stop. Please be very careful.

This is one of Mr. Betton's favorites. "Did you hear the story of the little boy who asked his (Texan) father how to spell "rat"? His father said "r-a-t." Said the boy. "Oh, I don't mean that kind of rat. I mean the rat than is "right (rat) now."

EVANSBURG NEWS

Today as I write this, everyone could almost be singing "Snow, snow, go away, come again another day". It seems that we have already had as much snow this season as we've had all winter long other years. All this snow is making it difficult for those farmers who still have feed in the fields and have to do their hauling in now.

The Centennial Arena opened on November 27th for the winter season. For the first few days it was free skating for everyone, but season's tickets are already on sale and everyone is urged to get theirs as soon as possible. A large crowd turned out on the Sunday of the opening to take advantage of the good ice conditions and the first skating of the year.

The cub pack s have finally been organized to a start for the year. For the first two months of the season, they had changes of leaders almost weekly and the Scouts also helped out. Now Pack leaders are Mrs. M. Bruner and Mrs. G. Hampton. There are sixteen boys in the pack and Christmas party planning is now going on. A skating party along with the Scouts is being planned as well as ski doo outings.

Mr. J. and Mr. M. Mazeppa have been travelling around lately going to various cattle ranches and sales have now come up with two Charolais cross bulls. We ought to see a change in the calf crop on their farm in a couple of years.

The High School students are planning various activities for the holiday season. One of their activities is a drama night to be held in the near future.

Albertans Urged to Be Rat Conscious

Albertans must be "rat conscious" if they are to continue to keep this province free of these destructive pests, says Dale Alsager, who has just returned from a tour of the Alberta-Saskatchewan border area. Mr. Alsager is animal pest control specialist with the provincial department of agriculture.

He stresses that it is particularly important to be on the lookout for rats at this time of year because it is the period when those that have migrated to new areas establish themselves for the winter. If they are allowed to spend the winter in a feed stack, or under a building, the owner could be in for a real shock next spring.

Figures based on scientific rat research show that a male and female rat can in seven months be responsible for a colony of 506 rats. The gestation period for a rat is only 24 days and the average litter size is eight. However, 12 to 15 in a litter is not uncommon.

Mr. Alsager advises all property owners, and particularly those along the Alberta - Saskatchewan border, to set out plenty of warfarin bait in their feed stacks and around their buildings. If these areas are kept well baited during the winter, there is very little likelihood that rats will become established on the premises.

It is no problem to put a bag of warfarin prepared bait at regular intervals along the bottom row of bales in a feed stack. Baiting buildings is also easy. Simply lean an old board or door up against the wall of the building to protect the bait from other animals.

Although warfarin has been used for rat control for many years now, there is still a good deal of misunderstanding about its safety. Farmers say they do not like to use it because they feel that it is dangerous to have around. According to Mr. Alsager, warfarin is probably one of the safest and most rat-specific baits that has ever been developed. It kills the rats by thinning out their blood. It would have to be taken in very large quantities and over a long period of time to harm a dog, cat, cow or human being. In fact there are no recorded cases of a domestic animal or of a person having been poisoned by the concentrations of warfarin that are contained in the plastic one-pound packages, available free from pest control officers.

However, because warfarin is a toxic substance, it should always be handled with care, says Mr. Alsager. This means keeping it out of the reach of children and domestic animals.

Senior Citizens Wind-up Year

The last meeting for 1970 of the Drayton Valley Senior Citizens Club was held at the Elks Hall on November 26th with 28 members and three visitors present.

Favorable committee reports were heard and $54.00 raised by sale of bazaar items and a quilt made and donated by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Duckett was turned over to the club. A crocheted table cloth was presented to the club by Mrs. Malainey to be raffled in aid of the Purple Pansy Home.

Bingo was the evening's entertainment followed by exchange of Christmas gifts. A delicious lunch was served, supervised by Mrs. Norma Wall of the O.O.R.P. Members extended a vote of thanks to the lodges and community at large for support of the club.

Telephone Directory Change

A.G.T. officials announced this week that communities presently contained in the Northern District Telephone Directory will be provided with their own distinctive Yellow Page Sections commencing with the December 1971 issue next year. The 1970 issue under the existing format is presently being distributed throughout the Northern area with completion expected by December 12th.

The new localized Yellow Page Sections are oriented to communities of interest and will provide a more useful and convenient directory to the user, as well as a more effective and economical advertising medium for the businessman. Under the plan, all telephone customers will continue to be provided with the White Pages for their own community and trading area. Existing box ads now located throughout the White Pages would be relocated to the Yellow Pages under the appropriate classifications.

The new arrangement calls for seven separate Yellow Page sections in place of the one now provided.

Edson, Hinton, Jasper and surrounding territory; Drayton Valley Stony Plain, Whitecourt and surrounding territory; Athabasca, Barrhead, Westlock and surrounding territory; Bonnyville, Fort McMurray, Grand Centre, Lac La Biche, St. Paul and Surrounding territory; Fort Saskatchewan, Vegreville and surrounding territory; Lloydminster, Provost, Vermillion, Wainwright and surrounding territory and Camrose, Leduc, Wetaskiwin and surrounding territory.

Every day thousands of Canadians cause themselves physical damage by inhaling cigarette smoke. MARSH WORLD

by Angus Shortt, Ducks Unlimited

MUSKRAT

This valuable fur-bearer makes its home in those marshes where cattail and bulrush abound. It is dependent on these plants for food and they also provide the materials with which it builds its home. In turn, muskrat houses are utilized as nesting and loafing sites by waterfowl. Channels and openings cut in the dense reed beds by muskrats make the marsh more attractive to waterfowl. At Big Grass Marsh in Manitoba, Ducks Unlimited's first project, muskrats yield an annual fur crop worth many thousands of dollars to local trappers.
